Nomy, Burn the pictures

Hey you believe it or not
But I find you pretty attractive heeey
I guess you dont know how I am
And thats ok cause I dont give a damn thats right
So whats your name

Am I insane

If I call you baby

Right now for the first time

I wanna wake up with you every fucking day

Burn the pictures from yesterday

I thought I loved you but my hate is in the way

This is the hour when I regreat

Everything I promissed you is not what you will get

You're lying next beside me

Breathing silently

My conscience catches up like always killing me

How about people Leaving me alone

Cause every god damn day I try to love them but I feel Im doing wrong

How should I live

This life

Now when I know that I am lost inside of me

How should I live

My life

Nów when I know

That I am dead inside

Burn the pictures from yesterday

I thought I loved you but my hate is in the way

This is the hour when I regreat

Everything I promissed you is not what you will get
