

Norah Jones, A Song With No Name

do I love you too much do I hold you too tight have you had enough
you shake me off in the night

if I had a gun
if I had a knife
if I had your love
if I was your wife

if I go on my own
and I see you in my dreams and I hope to again
I have silently schemed

if I had a gun
if I had a knife
if I had your love
if I was your wife
