

Norah Jones, Crazy

Crazy

Crazy, crazy for feeling so lonely

I'm crazy, crazy for feeling so blue

I know, that love me as long as you want it and inside I know you would leave me for somebody new

Worry, why do I let myself worry

Wondering, what in the world did I do?

Crazy, of thinking that my love could hold you

Oh I'm crazy for trying and crazy for crying and I'm crazy for loving you solo

Worry, why do I let myself worry

Wondering, what in the world did I do?

Ohoh I'm crazy for trying, and I'm crazy for crying

and I'm crazy for loving you
