

Notarthomas Jamie, Sky Blue

The mind convinced the soul, the body played no part
Attraction was coincidence, and reason from the heart
And I fall into your eyes
They're so blue but just as empty as the sky
Young and inexperienced, I easily forgot
Beauty's vibrance always dims when innocences rot
And I fall into your eyes
Oh, they're so blue but just as empty as the skies
Conviction serves lies as much as truth
Like you sometimes I hide inside my pain proof booth
And I fall into your eyes
They're so blue but just as empty as the skies
Oh, they're so blue but just as empty as the skies
Oh blue, they're empty, they're lonely, they're vacant
As the skies
