

Nothing But Thieves, Tomorrow Is Closed

Oh, it's too late
Come watch the waste
Dirty English sky
It's washing me away

Open my lungs
I feel the gunge
How it tries to kill me
It's stinging

Now you know we're all the same
Who have you got left to blame?
Everlasting summer, again
It's all we've got left
It's all we've got

So here's your last kiss
Won't wanna miss this
Only piece of heaven I have ever had
No I don't think
It's for nothing
But I hope someday we're gonna get it back

Cover our eyes
It feels so nice
Lie on morning tv
It's easy

Say the wrong things the right way
Takes you to the highest place
It's time to embrace the insane
It's all we've got

So here's your last kiss
Won't wanna miss this
Only piece of heaven I have ever had
No I don't think
It's for nothing
But I hope someday we're gonna get it back

Tomorrow is closed
There's no future at all
We've burned it all down
Down to the ground
I saw it written on the bathroom wall
I've lost my place
We all have
But I hope someday we're gonna get it back

So here's your last kiss
Won't wanna miss this
Only piece of heaven I have ever had
We're all sinking
You know the feeling
We're all reaching out to find another hand
No I don't think
It's for nothing
