

Novastar, E

what you've done to me is not for the world to see does bring back the anger it's crawling deep inside of me cause you're all I have worth waiting for left alone once more what do you intend to do now

when you dance for when you dance through the night
tonight
you know it's not right

you're not who you are you're losing it by far heaven knows I do care cause you're all I have been living for now it don't seem so sure what do I intend to do now
do now, do now

tonight

tonight
