

Novika, MOMMY SONG

Had a fight with my daughter over something unimportant
Can't believe just how she screamed
Throwing out the bad words catalogue
Myself - I wasn't better
Demonstrating who's in power
Making up some fake scenarios
... about things that matters

Need you to buy me toys,
Need you to buy me sweets
Mommy I love you so!
Mommy you're all I need!
/2x

(Mommy I love you so!)

After all is said and done
We're exhausted with emotions
Then a sudden burst of love
Brings the joy and all the huggin'
Had a fight with my daughter over something unimportant
But remember: kids are sweet!
Sweetest when you watch them sleep

Need you to buy me toys,
Need you to buy me sweets
Mommy I love you so!
Mommy you're all I need!
