

Novika, She's Dancing

She's dancing in a forgetful way
To come near no one really dares
She's conscious of the watchers around
It's timeless
She feels you

Out of the forest densely dark
With strange beauty shining bright
Sneaking up without a clue
She felt warm inside

With a sudden blow of wind
She'll go out and disappear
Nothing left, no single trace
They'll keep watching out

She's dancing in a forgetful way
To come near no one really dares
She's conscious of the watchers around
It's timeless
She feels you

Like a beauty never seen
Using power like a queen
Turning faces into stones
When they are looking up
