

NRG, Do You Know

Do you know
Don't look at me like that baby
I don't look at you anymore baby
Please leave baby
To your hypocritical conscious world
Don't look at me like that baby
I don't look at you anymore baby
Please leave baby Come on come on
With your gaze that I couldn't understand you make me have a hard time with an awkward lie.
Your smile, your whispers, and even your sweet kisses. I don't trust you.
I'm going to throw you away now baby
I can't stand it anymore baby
I don't hesitate, please leave me now.
Do you know what oyu do to me
My love has frozen now
Do you know what you do to me
I'm going to forget you, you hypocrite.
Let me stop
I can feel you baby
We're until forever, I'm like that.
When you have to lie to me
Do you feel refreshed? You're like that.
I can't understand you.
I'm going insane
Why is it someone else and not me
To them you speak things that don't seem like words and you listen to the same things.
And with the same motions and expressions
You so obviously and shamelessly tell them about me easily.
Now I hate you. I have to.
When these words are done you have to disappear from my presence.
I'm going to throw you away now baby
I can't stand it anymore baby
I don't hesitate, please leave me now.
Do you know what oyu do to me
My love has frozen right now
Do you know what you do to me
I'm going to forget you, you hypocrite.
Don't look at me like that baby
I don't look at you anymore baby
Please leave baby
To your hypocritical conscious world
Don't look at me like that baby
I don't look at you anymore baby
Please leave baby Come on come on
Do you know what you do to me
My has frozen right now
Do you know what you do to me
I'm going to forget you, you hypocrite
Do you know what you do to me
I'm going to forget you, you hypocrite
Do you know what you do to me
