

NRG, Letter

The fact that I have to forget you makes me sad...
Goodbye...
You asked me
I told you not to do this and I couldnt say anything else
I didnt want to show you this weak side of me
So I tried to hide it
I will wait for you who will someday return
But it was separation that left nothing but pain for me
Never get to you
You have to forget everything about me now
You know as much as I do that we cant turn things back
I wont show you my sad side anymore
You need to be happy forever
For you I will say goodbye
If only you will be happy...
Yes, it has been really hard for me
I predicted that we will break up but
Your face, trying to hide your tears
It was such a difficult memory
Never get to you
You have to forget everything about me now
You know as much as I do that we cant turn things back
I wont show you my sad side anymore
You need to be happy forever
For you I will say goodbye
You really have to be happy..
I love you...
There are precious memories of me and you but
If you will be happy, I will not be sad
I will pray always for you
You need to be happy forever
I love you, goodbye now
I love you...
