

Nu Virgos, Stop! Stop! Stop!

No I didn't trust him
But he rushed me to feel
Tried to mesmerize me and was
All sex appeal

Told me everything
That I was longing to hear
Shiny and handsome
My souvenir

And then all of a sudden
I have fallen in love
He would put me down
But I'd still place him above

Tired of searching for the love
That still lives in him
Giving my everything
Like a souvenir

Given up my heart
In the name of a memory
Fallen down like rain
He could feel every drop

Now I know I have
Have the courage to tell him
Tell him to stop stop stop

Given up my heart
In the name of a memory
Fallen down like rain
He could taste every drop

Now I know I have
Have the courage to tell him
Tell him to stop stop stop

I've become invisible
I melt away at night
Dreaming once so colourful
Becomes black and white

Loving once so wonderful
Is no longer here
So I'll keep this feeling
Like a souvenir

Given up my heart
In the name of a memory
Fallen down like rain
He could feel every drop

Now I know I have
Have the courage to tell him
Tell him to stop stop stop

Given up my heart

Now I know I have

Tell him to stop stop stop
