

Number1hater, Good Enough

I wish I had a girlfriend who actually acted like she cared
I wish I could wake up and be a millionaire
I wish for once I could feel loved,
I wish my girl friend Wasn't always so drunk
I wish Instead of just passing out
We could have sex and I could kiss her on the mouth
I wish instead of talking about what songs she dances to
She could say I wanna make your life up to you
I wish I would of seen the shallowness from the start,
I wish I would of never gave her my heart.
I wish my mom didn't pass away
I wish things went a different way

Chorus

I wish I wasn't always ignored
I wish shed stop hanging out at the liquor store
I wish I was all big and buff
I wish for once I felt good enough.
I wish she would make her own money
I wish for once she thought I was funny,
I wish I could have someone else
I wish I was by myself.
I wish dating didn't feel like a chore
I wish she didn't always act so bored love was all that I could give her
Then i found out she was a stripper
Then everything's supposed to be just fine
But I cant seem to get it off my mind,
I wish my mom didn't pass away
I wish things went a different way

Chorus

I wish I wasn't always ignored
I wish shed stop hanging out at the liquor store
I wish i was all big and buff
I wish for once I felt good enough.
I wish she would make her own money
I wish for once she thought I was funny,
I wish I could have someone else
I wish I was by myself
