

Oasis, Force Of Nature

One, two, three, four.. yeah i feel like a force of nature could make you sing like a bird released if what you seek is a wise mans treasure you know it's buried beneath your feet you know you look like a faded picture i see the cracks freezing on your skin and as the world slowly turns it hits ya that the thieves of the night are coming tol take you in you're smokin all my stash but burning all my cash i bet ya knew right away

it's all over town
as the suns going down
and the days of your easy life
i bet ya knew right away ya hope ya don't know where it's at
it's all over town
and it's high time to pray

yeah i feel like a force of nature
