

OCN (Ocean), Waterfall

Is it weird of me that I keep escaping
Into something that's so pure?
It's unreal
Do you think that you can grow to appreciate it
And trust what you feel?

I feel, like a little drop in waterfall of life
And I feel fine
I know, sometimes what you've lost defines what you still have
Do you feel fine?

You can't wrap me up in this web of textures
Or make me somebody who I am not
I don't want to interfere, with your bleak delusion of what you call life

I feel, like a little drop in waterfall of life
And I feel fine
I know, sometimes what you've lost defines what you still have
Do you feel fine?
