

Off By One, Try (Acoustic)

Every night I, I lay inside my bed and dream
I wonder if I ever meant anything
But to your love, and all that you hurt me so bad and I
Cause I will try

But still I try, I try
But I, I wont succeed
Cause Everyday Away From You, Is One Away From Me
But I, I will be, I'll be the only one you, has ever seen my way

I'm watching, I'm waiting
I'm wondering what's your move
Is and I'll be what you wanted me to
But if I closed my eyes would I
See you smiling back at me
But I will try

But still I try, I try
But I, I wont succeed
Cause Everyday Away

So when you say, you say that our loves okay
Cause I know, that you don't mean anything that you
You tell me once your staying then I see you walking out that door
But I will try
