Eleven Eleven

Used to be our time when I'd hold your heart next to mine
But now our time is your time and his time
Your wish is between you

I'll take this time to say goodbye
I won't pray for you forever
I'll throw this clock right on the fire
A wish postponed till never

Eleven Eleven

A stinging reminder as you fuel the fire
Consume me, its time for me to burn alone
To burn alone

I'll take this time to say goodbye
I won't pray for you forever
I'll throw this clock right on the fire
A wish postponed till never

I'll take this time to say goodbye
I won't pray for you forever
I'll throw this clock right on the fire
A wish postponed till never

Never

Never never never

Till never

Till never

Forever and ever and ever
