ENGLISH TRANSLATION:

So sharp your words, in north wind
So sharp your touches, they're sharp, like wind
I see your face in reflections
You come

Something suddenly turns out the lights
You been taken by north wind, it takes You away from me
Something mixes reflectons
I see your face
See it when I close my eyes

In north wind, like candle flame sun goes out
In north wind, you return into me again
You come

I walk alone in the dark, in north wind
I see your face in reflections
You come

Something suddenly turns out the lights

Something mixes reflections
