

Olivia Anna Livki, Abby, Abby!

If you wake up early morning cold in and outside,
I'll be right here designing.

If you get into your empty flat with new friends out of side,
I'll be right here designing
And if you get one of your panic attacks at your brand new start,
I'll be right here designing
Cause if you look to the left it's the
You can and you know that's my right.
Abby, I will be right here designing... designing.. designing?

Abby gets in the rhythm
She'll get down even if the town goes down
She'll get down even if the town goes down
"Abby watching the riverside"
"Abby watching the riverside"
Abby gets in the rhythm.
She'll get down even if the town goes down.
She'll get down even if the fuckin' town goes down!

Now you're running, running frantic and you can't sleep tight.
I'll be right here designing. Listen!
You so want them to know your name and it keeps you uptight.
Abby, Abby I know how it's frightening.
But once you reach up to your plans and need someone to be proud, Abby,
I will be right here designing... designing.. designing?

Everybody's sayin' the whole city's goin' down
Everybody's sayin' it's gonna be a hard life
Everybody's sayin' it's over!
But we'll get down even if the town goes down!
I said: "We'll get down even if the town goes down!"

If you get into the subway and you're missing the light,
Than I'll be right here designing.
And if you open your window and those planes come crashin' down,
Than I'll be right here designing.
