

OLIVIA FOK, MAMA

what is wrong with this world everybody's mean and cold is that hard say I am sorry gonna be ok.
don't worry

you just gone
saying nothing
when the pain surrounding ..
let me drown
wright again
and wake happy
I was say
our secrets dance together and we never come back
never

how could you leave me
tell me how
I was hard
but I am consents

and if this is goodbye
just know that I want cry I want feel void
my heart is not joy

But I got mama
