

Olivia Lufkin, If You Only Knew

You let go of my hand
You say you have important things to do
In search of something
Knocking in a faint sound
Ohh... The pain is burning your senses
Ohh... You're getting colder
Oh believe in me Oh believe in me
The magic you can create
If you only knew
You're forgetting me
Forgetting how to dream
Remember back then
When we played on the dandelion hill
Till the sunset
We didn't need anything else
Ohh... You're always protecting yourself
Ohh... Come here with me
Oh believe in me Oh believe in me
Do you ever feel this quietness inside?
That is where you'll find me
Nothing can erase me
