

Olivia Newton-John, Attention

(Olivia Newton-John /Annie Roboff /Steve Seskin)

Here in my heart, there's the truth
But no one could love me like you
But lately you seem so far away
Pretending that you hear what I say
It's all I can do to get some attention from you

Sometimes you look so unsure
Has time left you longing for more?
Wishing you would let me back in
I just wanna be home again
It's all I can do to get some attention from you

You mean too much to me to give up without a fight
Lord knows we can't survive one more silent night

I'd like to think there's a chance
Some way to save our romance
But if I have to do it alone
I'd be better off on my own
It's all I can do to get some attention from you
oh,What can I do to get some attention from you
