Omd, Maid Of Orleans

If Joan of Arc had a heart, Would she give it as a gift To such as me who longs to see, How a legend oughta be Had dreams to give her heart away, Like an orphan along the way She cared so much, She offered up her body to the grave