

Omnisoul, Trauma

Dream while you're still awake, there's no need for sleeping.
Crawl where you wanna walk and don't look behind.
Watch with your eyes closed till you get the feeling.
You can sense it, your perpetual mind.

You get it from your mama.
You get it from your father, I know.
It's hard to take the trauma.

Take back your blindfold and just view the scenery.
Open the windows; it's a natural high.
Feel the wind blow and just keep believin'.
You create it, your perpetual mind.

You get it from your mama.
You get it from your father, I know.
It's hard to take the trauma
