

One Cool Guy, Mankind

Now ask yourself, do I really want to walk around blind?
Listen when you want change?
Now why cant you just understand that this is stuff we just dont do?
Now why cant we just hang around when youve got nothing better to do?
Were equal cause we cant trust each other, man you call this free?

Mankind is blind

Just a having a good time
He got that eight wheels on his feet
Twenty-four all together now I said just a having a seat
Here we go..
Youre drivin in your van you think youre so tough
Youre drivin in your van you think youre so rough
Youre drivin in your van youre just a bunch of chumps
Now my man is paranoid

So now that your nights complete
You had them at your feet
You didnt want their money
Just want to show them the heat
You drive around and open the door
You and youre boys think youre hardcore
So now they ran to hide, and you took my mans pride
