

OneRepublic, Connection

these days my waves get lost in the oceans 7 billion swimmers, man I'm going through the motions sent up a flare

I need love and devotion traded for some faces that I never know, notion maybe I should try to find the old me take me to the place and the people that know me tryna disconnect, thinking maybe you could sjhow me if there's so many people here, why am I so lonely?

can I get a connection?
can I get, can I get a connection?
can I get a connection?
can I get, can I get a connection?

good friends, good friends hard to find, let's face it bought the perfect home and there's a flood in the basement made a couple $ now and I ain't tryna chase it kids from Oklahoma, man we don't waste it I'm just tryna paint picture for me something I could give a damn about at maybe 40 years and I'll be ready and willing, be able to edit the story cause there's so many people here to be so damn lonely

can I get a connection?
can I get, can I get a connection?
can I get a connection?
can I get, can I get a connection?
can I get a connection?
can I get, can I get a connection?
can I get a connection?
can I get, can I get a connection?

lonely

right now, right now
I;m switching to a new lane floor to the floor
I'm searching for the real thing
met somebody else
something ain't no shame head to the clouds saying:

it's like can I get connection
can I get, can I get a connection?
can I get a connection?
can I get, can I get a connection?
I can see it in my
see it in my reflection
can I get a connection?
can I get, can I get a connection?
