

OneRepublic, Nobody (from Kaiju No. 8)

Nobody, nobody, nobody
Nobody, nobody, nobody

Yeah, I'd take the fall
I got you covered when there's no one at all
Oh yeah, and I'd stay through the night
When you've got demons trying to break through the walls

There ain't no, no kind of line
That I wouldn't cross if you need me to
You're out here searching for signs
So I think it's finally time that you knew

Nobody got you the way I do
Whatever demons you're fighting through
When you need somebody to turn to
Nobody got you the way I do
The way I do

Nobody, nobody, nobody
Got you the way I do
Nobody, nobody, nobody
Nobody got you the way I do
The way I do

When you go dark and the nights get so cold
I'll be on my way to you
You know I ain't tryna lose you, oh no
If you're in hell, I'll go there too

There ain't no, no kind of line
That I wouldn't cross if you need me to
You're out here searching for signs
So I think it's finally time that you knew

Nobody got you the way I do
Whatever demons you're fighting through
When you need somebody to turn to
Nobody got you the way I do
The way I do

Nobody, nobody, nobody
Got you the way I do
Nobody, nobody, nobody
Nobody got you the way I do

(The way, the way, the way I do)
(The way, the way, the way I do)
Nobody got you the way I do

Nobody, nobody, nobody
Got you the way I do
Nobody, nobody, nobody
Nobody got you the way I do
The way I do

Nobody, nobody, nobody
Nobody got you the way I do
