

OneRepublic, Rich Love

I remember talking and drinking
What we could find
Burning all those candles and saying up through the night
We'd make reservations for the places
We know we'd never try
But then we found some rich love

I remember feeling broke as a bottle of wine
I didn't move to the city
To count all my pennies
And worship the Hollywood sign
She'd say "Hay man, nice to meet you!"
But she'd take it in one last time
And I know, cuz I found some fake love

Broke as a bottle of wine
But drink with you all damn night
I'm not trying to trade love
Cuz if we don't find money
Then what we got honey is just enough
We got some rich love

She's say Hay man
She's say hay man nice to meet you /2x
But she'd take it in one last time
And I know it

Do you remember dancing on the party out in the yard?
We'd piss off the neighbors
They'd eventually call the cops
And I was saying up for something
Hoping fire would finally start
Cuz we had some new love

Broke as a bottle of wine
But drink with you all damn night
I'm not trying to trade love
Cuz if we don't find money
Then what we got honey is just enough
We got some rich love

She's say Hay man
She's say hay man nice to meet you /2x
But she'd take it in one last time
And I know it
