

Opeth, Sorceress

I'm a sinner
And I worship evil
Blood is thinner
But you will never know

Can you confess
That you thrive in chaos?
You're a sorceress
And your eye is on the lost
But you're dying
It's in your eyes!

You're a charlatan
You get everything you wish
You're a harlot
Carry poison in your kiss

Beg for forgiveness
With a dagger in your hand
Sow your death seed
And reap the dying lands

But you're crying
It's in your voice

Empty vessel, drained of hope
And none the lesser at the end of a rope
Have you ever hated like I?
Know I still awaited the absence of lies

Watch your eager tongue
Attack me from behind

The whispers
Bleak futile control
Like a twin sister
Adopting to a role
You're a murderer
Bloodlust increase
You're a harvester
Come close to spread disease

And you're hiding
I, I hear you cry
