

Origa, Maria

Maria, I call your name into the air every moment.
You'll never know how much I wanted
Just one tender touch.

Maria, you asked me why
But I don't know why
I'm in love with you.
Something inside your heart called out to my loneliness

I can't go on without you
But I know you have to go.
Maria, I call your name into the air, Maria

I know I can't see you again no matter what I do.
Maria, I call your name into the air every moment.
You'll never know how much I wanted
Just one tender touch.

Maria...
