

Outkast, Happy Valentines Day

My name is cupid valentino
The modern day cupid
And I just wanna say one thing

Happy Valentines Day (Everyday the 14th!)
I don't think ya'll heard me,
I just wanna say
Happy Valentines Day (Everyday the 14th!)
Can ya'll dig that

Now, when arrows don't penetrate see,
Cupid grabs the Pistol
Ah, yeah, now, now looka here
He shoots straight for your heart
Now, (And he won't miss you!)
But that's alright because you don't believe in me anyway, but...

You won't believe in me
But you would fancy leprochons
Or groundhogs, no thank you easter bunny Theres all this talk about santa clause but, see love will rule supreme

Happy Valentines Day (Everyday the 14th!)
You got it
When cupid knocks at your door
(You can't ignore me)
There's no need to run
So Happy Valentines Day (Everyday the 14th!)
Now I may have it all wrong see If you know what love means Well, will somebody tell me cause they just don't believe in me

You won't believe in me
But you would fancy leprochons
Or groundhogs, no thank you easter bunny
Theres so much fuss about Santa Clause but see, Cupid will not be defeated

Happy Valentines Day Everyday the 14th
Now I know your hearts have grown cold
And that bothers me Now I understand cause I used to be a bad boy in my day I know you tryin to protect your lil' feelings
But you can't runaway Huh, oh

You won't believe in me
but you would fancy HEY, don't you supposed to be some playa or something
BUNNY!
Well keep on running playa Because i got my good shoes on
And I got'em tied up tight
So you gon' find out tonight!

Got a sweet little darling back in my corna

but though I know I love her but act like I don't want her surrounded by the loving but yet
feel like a lona Could be an organ donor the way I give up my heart, but Never know because shit I'd never tella
ask me how i'm feeling I'd holla that it's irella
I don't get myself caught up in the jello jella
And pudding pops up other stops that they call falling in love But, for the record have you ever rode a horse Like for you to take me to pluto
I said of course
But if you ain't a sweetie indeedy I won't endorse Han Solo til I'm hit by the bullet so may the force
Be which and I'm which you and better time permits For now, and show me samples examples while your the shit
But how am I to know with the profession that I'm in And if you do not know me then how you could you be my friend

Happy Valentine
