

Ozzy Osbourne, Straight To Hell

alright now
come on, now!

you're lying higher than a kite tonight
you touch the hit
and now you feel alright
you're dance be death
so we must celebrate

I'll make you cream
I'll make you defecate

Straight To Hell tonight
you will be going
Straight To Hell
Straight To Hell tonight

I'll make you lie I'll make you seal and kill I'll make you crawl until your final trill enjoy the ride I'll plant my bitter seed you kill yourself and I will watch you bleed

Straight To Hell tonight
you will be going
Straight To Hell
Straight To Hell tonight
Straight To Hell tonight
you will be going
Straight To Hell
Straight To Hell tonight

something is missing and you don't know why deeper in the darkness
you will hide

alright now
alright now

Straight To Hell tonight
you will be going
Straight To Hell
Straight To Hell tonight
Straight To Hell tonight
you will be going
Straight To Hell
