

P.S. Soul, Girl

Girl I just wanna say
I tried to play the right cards
But now what I can
I don't care any more

The world so many things should be explain
You ? make me
You worst enemy
And now what is left is nothing at all

I tried to be hard
Try to understand
And every time you knocked me out
And ?
Is ok?
I didn't, I didn't, I didn't, wanna play
It seems that this everything was too much for me
Girl, the world is still spinning
But no what is it is nothing at all

Don't regret any step you've done
How we fools with the foolish heart
How ? much for you
And you for me
It was ours past
