Paolo Santos, Waiting In Vain-- Paolo Santos

from the very first time i laid my eyes on you, boy my heart says follow through but i know now that im way down on the line but the waiting feels just fine so dont treat me like a puppet on a string cos i know how to do my thing dont talk to me as if you think im done i wanna know when your gonna come..hmmm...

' i dont want to wait in vain for your love i dont want to wait in vain for your love i dont want to wait in vain for your love cos if summer is here im still waiting there winter is here and im still waitinf there i wanna know now its been three years since im knocking on your door and i still can knock some more oohh boy...oohh boy... is it feasible? i wanna know now before i knock some more i / you say in life i know that there's a lot of dream but your love is my relief tears in my eyes burn tears in my eyes burn but im waiting, but im waiting for my turn see...

I wanna know now... I wanna know now... I wanna know now... I wanna know now...

ooh boy...

I wanna know now...
