

Paris Jackson, let down

Head hanging down
Shredded evening down
Eyes painted black
A tragic paperback

You were my all
And ow, i fall to the ground
You hit the wall
And now, i crawl underground

Let me down again
Break me
Flush me down the drain
Let me down again

You were all i had
We feel fast and hard
How did it get this bad?
Ins and outs so scared

You were my all
And ow, i fall to the ground
You hit the wall
And now, i crawl underground

Let me down again
Break me
Flush me down the drain
Let me down again

Let me down again
Break me
Flush me down the drain
