

Paroxysm, Borders

Have I never told you
How fulfilling it is
To draw a border
Between here and reality
Coz this is now and that was then
And you and I are gone

CHORUS:

On the other side of the border
No-one can hurt me
Nothing can affect me
Over the line is my escape

So why don't you get it
I don't need you no more
You're unwanted and
I can live without you in my world
Over my border
Where you and I are gone

CHORUS:

On the other side of the border
No-one can hurt me
Nothing can affect me
Over the line is my escape
