

Pato Banton, Give Me Oil

Well each and every day I got to keep on moving.
So Jah! Give me oil in a my lamp, keep it burning.

Jah give me little oil in a my lamp, keep it burning.

It's to Jah and only Jah who I man is praying so all conscious people I hope you are listening not just listening with you ears but with your mind meditating and abiding to the words that Pato Banton is preaching.
A foolish man will tell you culture lyrics is boring
I would leave that pon ??? pieces when I ask him who you a dealing?
like salt in a water his brain will be dissolving smoke would come out of his ears like an old run down engine like a man struck by lightning he'll wonder what hit him?
I'll cramp and paralyze him and then I will leave him.
It no matter if you mellow, black, white, brown, pink or green skin who ever fight against Jah surely deserves a beating.

Well the devil is a crook don't be his next victim he'll break into your brain and check what you're thinking.
If you're dreaming of gold then gold you'll be wearing if you're wishing for money then money you'll be spending if you're hoping for fun then fun you'll be having but remember all good things must come to an ending.
Adam and Eve in a the garden it came to a sinning love between Cain and Abel it came to a killing many good times I've had, had to come to an ending but let me carry on with what I was saying.
Every time that you sin the devil is laughing every wrong move you make brings you nearer towards him you've got your chance while you are still living to choose a life of goodness or a life full of sinning.
So when Satan says "come to the fiery dungeon" it's only a wicked man soul that way will be taking.

Now all careless children I hope you are listening not just listening with your ears but with your mind concentrating me well serious I hope you don't think I'm joking if you listen truth and right and a study diverse action give thanks and praise in the night also first thing a morning try fi squeeze in couple chapters of the bible every evening watch what you do also mind what you saying every day every hour every minute every second Jah is watching that's why me say: Do good! And good will follow you! Yeah!
