Paul Simon, Old

The first time I heard "Peggy Sue" I was 12 years old Russians up in rocket ships And the war was cold Now many wars have come and gone Genocide still goes on Buddy Holly still goes on But his catalog was sold

First time I smoked
Guess what paranoid
First time I heard "Satisfaction"
I was young and unemployed
Down the decades every war
Summer leaves and my birthday's here
And all my friends stand up and cheer
And say man you're old

Getting old Old Getting old

We celebrate the birth of Jesus on Christmas day And Buddha found nirvana along the lotus way About 1,500 years ago the messenger Mohammed spoke And his wisdom lire a river flowed Through hills of gold

Wisdom is old The Koran is old The bible's old Greatest story ever told

Disagreements? Work 'em out

The human race has walked the earth for 2.7 million And we estimate the universe about 13-14 billion When all these numbers tumble into your imagination Consider that the lord was there before creation

God is old We're not old God is old He made the mold

Take your clothes off Adam and Eve
