

Pearl Jam, Happy When I'm Crying

e per noi un piacere augurarvi insieme [it is a pleasure for us to wish you, together] ai r.e.m. un buon cetriolo [with r.e.m., a merry christmas] i need a song to help along when it feels wrong it seems so long to get to the light we live in homes talk on phones hear the tone can you hold moving fast as light tv's on at night does peace come out of fighting?
can truth come out of lying?
i'm happy when i'm crying if reality is what i see newspapers magazines tv tell us what's going on leading us along it's not absurd to all get heard put our feelings into words you have to reach inside no feelings to hide
does peace come out of fighting?
bring children into the world we couldn't have done it by ourselves stop and wonder why there's more than meets the eyes somewhere inside i did believe i can't belong i was wrong i have gained insight
i will see the light truth isn't lying peace isn't fighting
love isn't dying
