

Pearl Jam, Quick Escape reconnaissance is on the corner in the old world not so far first we took an areophane then a boat to Zanzibar queen cracking on the blasted and mercury did rise came along where we all belonged you were yours and I was mine had to... Quick Escape

had to... Quick Escape
had to... Quick Escape
had...

crossed the border to Monaco Kashmir then Marrakech the lengths we had to go to then to find a place Trump hadn't fucked up yet living life on the back porch lifting nocks to make a wage every sunset paid attention to not a starry night went to waste

had to... Quick Escape
had to... Quick Escape
had to... Quick Escape
had...

and here we are, the red planet craters across the skylines a sleep sack in a bivouac and a Kerouac sense of time and we think about the old days of green grass , sky and red wine should've know, so fragile and avoided this one-way flight

had to... Quick Escape
had to... Quick Escape
had...
