

Pebbles, Why Do I Believe?

A feeling in my heart has taken over me, completely and boy you are the star, to come into my life you can take me
of all the guys i've even known, they've never been as wonderful so special and so sweet to me and all the dreams i've ever dreamed no one has been as good to me and you're the one to answer my dreams

Chorus:
why do i believe that i belong to you?
how can i explain this symphony?
as far as i can tell, my heart's under a spell and you're the only one, the only one for me

I feel you in my soul, your hearts carressing me, so deeply I'm under your control, you're all i ever need, you can use me of all the times i've been alone, no one has been as beautiful so strong and understanding to me and all the ways that i could see, no one has been as good for me and you will always be the one for me

Chorus 2x

And you're the only one....
the only one for me
for me....for me...
