

Pegboy, You

You, you feel life's a calamity
You, you're not sure who you are
You, you wish you could be someone else
You, you wish that it won't be too far
You, you wish you could be better now
Bet, the grinds getting tougher
Bet, you wish you could be something else
Sometimes life seems much rougher
All your castles of sand have blown away
You're no different then they are
Though your castles of sand are blown away
You're no different then they are.
You, you wish you could be satisfied feel the rope get tighter
Try, I know that it's withing your sight
Feel the chain get lighter.
All your castles of sand seem blown away
You're no different than they are
Though your castles of sand have blown away
You're no different than they are
Why on earth would you have dreams anyway
That's the difference so far.
