

Pentatonix, Coffee In Bed

You're in a mood
You're a little anxious but with gratitude
Underneath the blankets in a spinning room
Starting into darkness
While you're dreaming of a better view

You spend every Saturday morning
Stuck on a replay of last night
I won't take your words as a warning
And I'll pick you up every time

If you're hurting
I only wanna hurt with you
If you're searching
I am gonna be the first for you
You're the person
I know I am gonna hold on to

When you get too in your head
I will bring you coffee in bed
in bed, in bed
When you get too in your head
I will bring you coffee in bed
in bed
I'll stay with you in your head
I will bring you coffee in bed

I am on a plane
In the south of Texas back to east LA
Going through our messages I'm blown away
How can you make me feel so much
When you're not so little to say

You spend every Saturday morning
Stuck on a replay of last night
I won't take your words as a warning
And I'll pick you up every time

If you're hurting
I only wanna hurt with you
If you're searching
I am gonna be the first for you
You're the person
I know I am gonna hold on to

When you get too in your head
I will bring you coffee in bed
in bed, in bed
When you get too in your head
I will bring you coffee in bed
in bed
I'll stay with you in your head
I will bring you coffee in bed
