

Perry Blake, Saying Goodbye

Always dreaming, always dreaming of you

Always on my mind now
As you've always been
Some things are best forgotten
So you can sleep

The world was not enough love
And baby it'll never be
Just fall into the arms of Someone who'll lie.

And if this is a way of saying goodbye
Goodbye.
And if this is a way of saying goodbye
Goodbye.

Always dreaming, always dreaming of you

Summer fills the canyon
California free
The blossoms and the birdsong
Are all I need

And if this is a way of saying goodbye
Goodbye.
And if this is a way of saying goodbye

Goodbye
