

Pet Shop Boys, Invisible

After being for so many years
The life and soul of the party
It's weird
I'm invisible
Whatever I have said and done
Doesn't matter in this chatter and hum
I'm invisible

I'm here but you can't see me
I'm invisible
It's queer how gradually
I've become
Invisible

Look at me the absentee disappearing finally
Goodbye
Is it magic or the truth?
Strange psychology?
Or justified

Can you hear me?
Can you see me?
Am I really even here?

It's too late to find an excuse
The party's over and I'm not much use tonight
Am I tragic or a joke wrapped in my invisibility cloak?
Well, quite

I'm here but you can't see me
I'm invisible
It's queer how gradually
I've become
Invisible

It's a journey so they say
But in this desert I was only a hazy, lazy mirage anyway
