

Pete Townshend, Without Your Love

You can show me the way;
give me a sunny day;
what does it mean without your love?

If I could travel far;
if I could touch the stars,
where would I be without your love?

Whenever I get to feel down and out,
I think about what you said, and then
I give up.

If I could fly away;
If I could sail today,
where would I go without your love?

You're at the lowest level, and you're above;
you're in the seventh heaven, and you're in love;

Say it was just a whim;
there ain't a single thing
you wouldn't be without your love
