

Peter Gabriel, A Wonderful Day In A One-Way W

Saturday is shopping day-- I drive my car but there's no place to park it
--no respect for superman in supermarket I guess there must be trouble but I not been alerted looking round the store it was all deserted and I'm stranded here with my empty basket so full of question got nowhere to ask it

By the one way out
strange voice shout
&quot;Don't let that good man out!&quot;;

&quot;Have a wonderful day in our one-way world
one way, one day
Have a wonderful day in our one-way world
one way, one day
one-way man
one-way mind
get along with mankind&quot;;

Oh, there's an old man on the floor, so I summon my charm
I say &quot;Hey Scumbag, has there been an alarm?&quot;; he said &quot;Yeh, 'been selling off eternal youth they all got afraid 'cos I'm the living proof My name is Einstein do you know time is a curve?&quot;;
I said &quot;Stop old man! you got a nerve 'cos there's only one rule that I observe Time is money and money I serve&quot;;

By the one way out
strange voice shout
&quot;Don't let that good man out&quot;;

&quot;Have a wonderful day in our one-way world
one way, one day
Have a wonderful day in our one way world
one way, one day
one-day man
one-day mind
get along with mankind&quot;;
