Peter Gabriel, Lay Your Hands On Me

Sat in the corner of the Garden Grill, with plastic flowers on the window sil

No more miracles, loaves and fishes, been so busy with the washing of the dishes

Reaction level's much too high - I can do without the stimuli

I'm living way beyond my ways and means, living in the zone of the inbetweens

I can see the flashes on the frozen ocean, static charge of the cold emotion

Watched on by the distant eyes - watched on by the silent hidden spies

But still the warmth flows through me And I sense you know me well No luck, no golden chances No mitigating circumstances now It's only common sense There are no accidents around here

I am willing - lay your hands on me I am ready - lay your hands on me I believe - lay your hands on me, over me

Working in gardens, thornless roses, fat men play with their garden hoses
Poolside laughter has a cynical bite, sausage speared by the cocktail satellite
I walk away from from light and sound, down stairways leading underground

But still the warmth flows through me And I sense you know me well It's only common sense There are no accidents around here

I am willing - lay your hands on me I am ready - lay your hands on me I believe - lay your hands on me, over me over me

Lay your hands on me Lay your hands on me Lay your hands on me, over me
