

Peter Koppes, Sound

(Ahh, ss-sound)

Ah you really turned me on
With everything today
You really turned me on
The way you did what you did today

Yeah I wanna
Yeah I gotta yeah
If you wanna take a journey to a foreign land
There's a train leaving now
Come aboard
We'll write a song about it
We're going where you know you've never ever been

I wanna tell you
You are good for me
Everyday and every night, yeah
Together we'll dream right now
And kiss the candlelight bye

What do you say?
Can you hear it?
The sound of fear is missing
You can hear it
Then we've gotta listen
Yeah we gotta listen

Yeah I wanna
Yeah I gotta yeah
If you wanna take a journey to a foreign land
There's a train leaving now
We gotta listen yeah
Come aboard
We're going where you've never been
