

Phantasma, Enter Dreamscape

Run away with me explore the endless possibilities
I'll break your fall and you'll break mine
It's how it is, how it will always be

I pray infinitely
For a different deity
The atrocity that haunts me in my sleep

We all fall from our pedestal
Into your dreams beyond concepts of real
It's just an illusion
Lose your grip with me

Run away with me the horizon holds a mystery
I've got your back and you've got mine
It's how it is, how it will always be

I'll pray each day and night
To keep demons out of sight
To guide the both of you back into the light

We all fall from our pedestal
Into your dreams beyond concepts of real
It's just an illusion
Lose your grip
We all fall from our pedestal
Into your dreams beyond concepts of real
It's just an illusion
Lose your grip with me

I pray infinitely
For a different deity
than the atrocity that haunts me in my sleep

We all fall from our pedestal
Into your dreams beyond concepts of real
It's just an illusion
Lose your grip with me
