

Phil Vassar, This Is My Life

Fat cats just getting fatter
Lining their pockets
What does it matter?
All I want is an honest wage
A piece of ground where my kids are safe
80 bucks to fill my truck
Old man telling me times are tough
Sticking it to the middle class
Well, they can kiss my price of gas
Its time to speak my mind
Hey-- this is my life
Woa woa this is my life
Hey--yea this is my life
Woa-woa
Yea, and I want it back
Republican or democrat
Well, I dont give a damn about that
I want a chance to do my job
Pledge allegiance to my God
Talkin heads trying to buy my vote
Im just trying to pay my note
Im a husband trying to be a father
Raise my son and raise my daughter
Can you hear me?
Hey-- this is my life
Woa woa this is my life
Hey--yea this is my life
Woa-woa
And I want it back
Well, Im just standing on the edge of the brink
I will not go quietly
Ill tell you what I think
Its time to speak my peace
Squeaky wheel always gets the grease
One single voice dont matter
But everybodys screaming up the ladder
Gonna get the attention of the man on top
Make it louder, shake and rock
It might just come tumbling down
Spread all that wealth around
Thats what Im talking about
Hey-ya this is my life
Woa woa this is my life
Hey-hey-yea this is my life
Woa-woa
This is my life
This is my life
